

A Covenant Group
World Scripture:
A Comparative Anthology
of Sacred Texts

World Scripture Covenant Group
1st and 3rd Sundays from 12-2 at All Souls
Beginning September 20

What do the sacred texts of world religions have to say about the nature of ultimate reality? Good government? Spiritual growth? Offering and sacrifice? Which tradition's texts resonate with your appreciation of the universe? Which help you focus on being your better self? Compare the teachings of twenty-nine religious traditions from African Traditional Religions to Zoroastrianism. As we explore this wealth of teaching held sacred in their cultural contexts, perhaps we can come to a better understanding of the human impulse toward religion. Rev. Nori and Jo Winn will facilitate this 18 week exploration based on the International Religious Foundation's World Scripture: A Comparative Anthology of Sacred Texts.

Registration is required with a minimum of 6 and a maximum of 12. Registration ends September 6th. There is no charge to attend a covenant class but we ask you provide your own book. Please contact Laurie@asuuc.net with any questions.
