

The All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church of Colorado Springs, CO, is seeking a part-time staff pianist to begin May 7, 2023 or as soon as possible.

The staff pianist will provide all service music, including but not limited to a prelude, postlude, and offertory selected by the pianist, as well as 3-4 hymns, a children's benediction, and a choral anthem selected by the music director. The choir currently sings every three weeks, September through May.

The pianist also accompanies the choir's rehearsals every Tuesday from 5:30-6:30pm and every Sunday from 9:15-10:10am before the service, which begins at 10:30am and typically lasts until 11:30 or 11:45am.

The requirements for this position are:

- The ability to perform a diverse range of music styles as assigned;
- The ability to select and perform weekly solo works for prelude, postlude, and offertory;
- The ability to play from the hymnals of the Unitarian Universalist Church, including lead sheet realizations;
- And the ability to be present and engaged for the listed service times each Sunday.

Preferences for this position include experience working with the Unitarian Universalist Church, experience accompanying musicians including a hymn leader, and the ability to improvise variations during the playing of a hymn as assigned.

The pianist is paid $20 per hour for a total of 30 hours a month. The pianist receives one Sunday off per month.

To apply, an applicant must submit a letter of interest and a resume to the All Souls music director, Jay Thomas, at https://music@asuuc.net. The window for accepting applicants closes on April 21, 2023.
